How Did We Get Here?

How Did We Get Here?

- The Tribal Wildlife Management Plan was finalized in 2014 after 8 years of negotiations
- This is an agreement with ODFW that returns the rights of the tribe to manage their fish and wildlife populations
- The Management Plan went into effect in 2015

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Wildlife Management Plan

Species Covered in Plan

Others include:

- Upland Game Birds
- Ruffed Grouse
- Blue (Sooty) Grouse
- Mountain Quail
- California Quail
- Turkey

Steelhead Trout

Cutthroat Trout

Chinook Salmon

Coho Salmon

Pacific Lamprey

Crayfish

Roosevelt Elk

Black Bear

Coyote

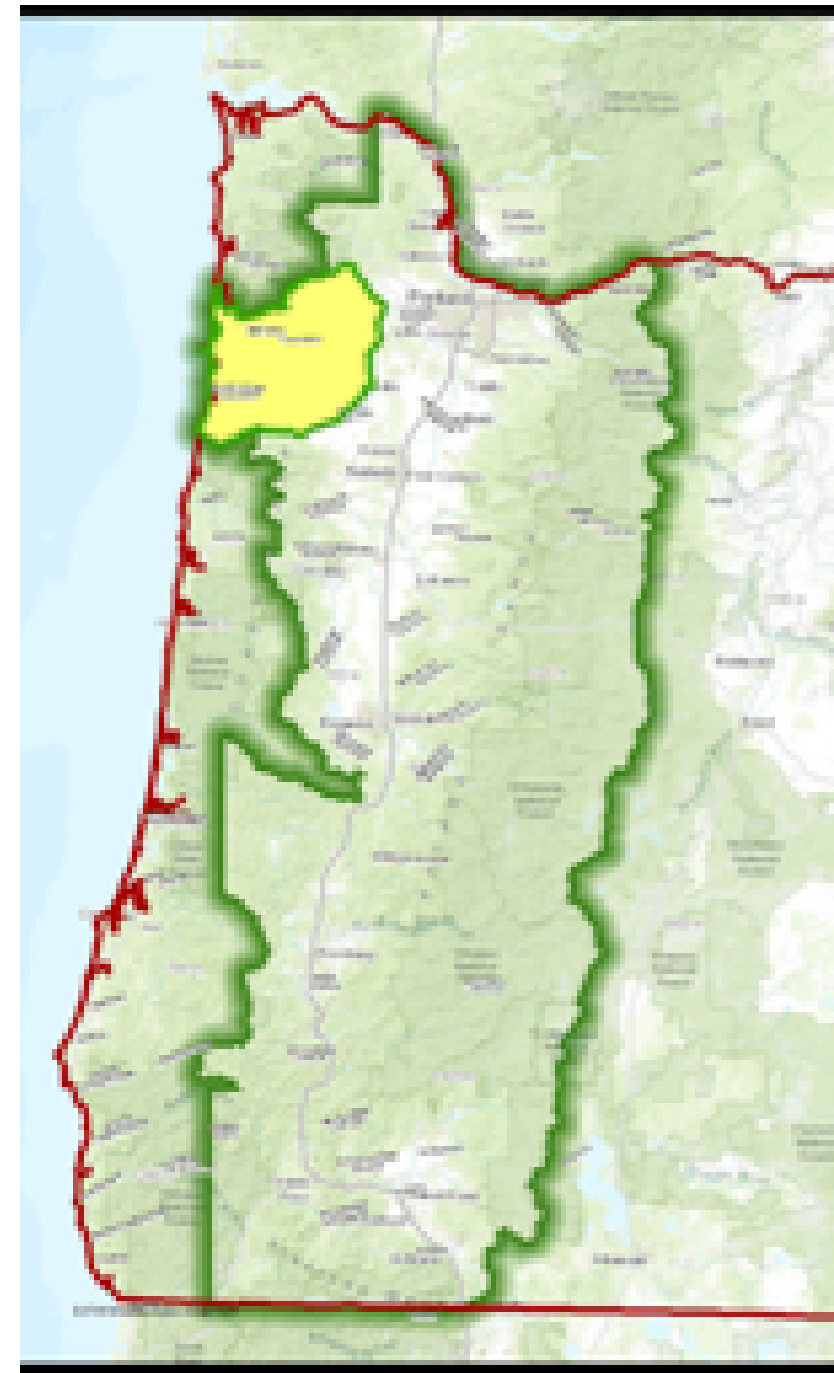

Bobcat

Action Area of the Plan

1. Ceded Lands

Provide input to state and federal agencies on natural resource management actions that impact these lands through agency-to-agency consultation.

2. Trask Wildlife Unit

Vested interested in management due to Tribal hunting and fishing rights identified in Consent Decree

3. Reservation and Trust Lands

Approval of plan returns authority to Tribe to manage and oversee resources on Tribal lands. The Tribal Hunt is a part of this authority

Confederated Tribes
of Grand Ronde

What Does This Mean?

What Does This Mean?

To The Tribe

- Regaining sovereignty and the direct management authority of these resources

To Tribal Membership

- Additional Exclusive Hunting Rights outside of Trask or ceremonial opportunities

To the Natural Resources Department

- Direct Management of Resources on Reservation
- Advocate for Natural Resources Stewardship for Tribal Membership

* KEEP THIS PERMIT WITH YOUR TAG AT ALL TIMES ****

- If not specified in the permit, then default to ODFW regulations – an example is the definition of a buck
- All 3 documents, Tag, Receipt, and Permit are stapled and put on animal

Open Hunting Area

- The white area is the ONLY open hunt area with Tribal Hunt Tags
- All areas in GREY are closed
- The most common access is Agency Creek Rd

Location is Important

Indicators:

- Tribal gates are red/white
- Tribal mile markers are red/white
- Entering/leaving markers

Unsure of Location:

- Conservative approach
 - Err on the side of caution
- The responsibility is ultimately yours to know where you are and if you are within the Reservation Boundary.

Tool to Help with Location

Confederated Tribes
of Grand Ronde

Avenza Maps®

This QR code will take you to a site to download a .pdf reservation map

Smartphone Apps:

- There are Smartphone Apps to help with GPS location on the Reservation. Which also work where no cell service is available.
- Tutorials for Avenza or Field Maps are available upon request
- Contact us if you need the boundary information sent to you.

Reservation Only Hunt Regulations

Confederated Tribes
of Grand Ronde

What's Different?

- Seasons are set by NRD and are outside of State seasons
- Open Hunting area is only on the Reservation
- Additional Documents (Tag Permit and Tag Receipt)
- Tribal Tags are non-transferable
- Tribal Tags are non-replaceable

What's the Same?

- Tribal hunting license is valid
- ODFW hunting rules apply unless specified
- Tag return deadline

Regulations Enforcement

Fish and Wildlife Ordinance

- Identifies all rules, regulations, and penalties for tags

Tribal Police

- NRD Coordinates with Tribal Police about Tribal Hunt
- Responsible for issuing Citations

Tribal Police issues citations and this requires appearance in person at Tribal Court where fines and penalties are determined.

- If a violation is considered "egregious" fines can be doubled.

Fish & Wildlife Ordinance Fee Schedule

Class A	$500 - $2,000
Class B	$50 - $500
Class C	$1 - $50

Fines determined by judge - to appear

Stewardship

Confederated Tribes
of Grand Ronde

- There has been a significant investment of Tribal resources to get here
 - This is a huge step towards sovereignty
 - This is your opportunity and your responsibility
 - It is important to exercise good judgement and ethics in the field
 - The State holds the authority to rescind these rights

Ethics Statement Hunter Signs before Taking Tag

By signing below, I certify I have read and understand the terms of this permit and agree to comply with all hunting laws, rules and regulations required by the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde and the State of Oregon. By Accepting this permit and associated Reservation Only Hunting Tag, I understand I am a steward of Tribal hunting rights and agree to hunt in the highest ethical manner by exhibiting exemplary conduct in the field.

Stewardship (Continued)

Confederated Tribes
of Grand Ronde

What will Tribal Police Look for?

- Is it reasonable?
 - Example - Animal shot on Tribal land but travels over boundary
 - Evidence of blood trail?
 - Locations of spent cartridge?
 - In this type of situation, Tribal Police recommend you mark the area you fired from.
